The conferment of this scholarship is aimed at the sole academic advancement of the recipient; it does not constitute an employment contract and it does not grant access to a position in this institution.

Art. 2 - Requirements and Qualifications

The details of the competition hereby announced and the requirements for the candidates are specified in art. 1. The lack of a valid undergraduate qualification constitutes grounds for immediate exclusion from the selection.

Candidates who hold an undergraduate qualification obtained from a foreign institution, recognised under the provisions of the current legislation, must include in their application:

a) a copy of the degree complete with a list of the single examinations undertaken and relative grades;
b) any other documentation useful to the appraisal of the candidate's qualification (Supplementary Diploma, etc.). The candidate will have to enclose a signed translation of the documents in either Italian or English (in the event that the said documents are not already in Italian or English).

To the purpose of this selection, the Judging Committee will verify the equivalence of the degree obtained abroad.

Art. 3 - Incompatibility

The scholarship connected to this competition cannot be awarded to anyone who is related, or related through marriage, up to the fourth degree of kinship, to:
- The Rector, the general Director or a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Udine;
- The Head of Research or a professor or researcher working for the department which hosts the programme to which the scholarship is referred [or working, independently or within a department, in the same venue as that hosting the programme].

In addition, pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of the Internal Regulations on "Postgraduate Research Fellowships" (issued by R.D. No. 1701, Dec. 19, 2022), the research fellowship is incompatible with:

a) with Scholarships in any capacity awarded, except those granted by national institutions or foreign, useful to supplement, with stays abroad, the research activity of the fellowship holder;
b) by attendance at undergraduate, master's or master's degree programs, PhD programs with Fellowship and medical specialization programs, in Italy and abroad;
c) with research grants;
d) with employment relationships;
e) with self-employment relationships, including parasubordinate, subject to the provisions of the second paragraph of this article.

Attendance at a master's course or a course of higher education may be authorized by the Chief Scientific Officer if there are justified needs.
Fellows may engage in occasional work activities, subject to written notification to the Scientific Officer and provided that:

a) such activity is declared by the Head himself compatible with the exercise of the training activity covered by the Research Fellowship;

b) does not involve a conflict of interest with the specific training activity carried out by the fellow;

c) does not cause prejudice to the University, in relation to the activities carried out.

Art. 4 – Application for participation

The application form, compiled on regular paper according to the model included below (Attachment A) and complete with the required documentation, must be emailed to the Department of Languages and Literatures, Communication, Education and Society – University of Udine – via Petracco, 8 – 33100 Udine and be received no later than October 23th, 2023 at 12:00 (CET). Late submissions will not be considered.

The application form must either:
1) Be sent to the email address ricerca.dill@uniud.it within the deadline indicated above;
2) Be sent by certified email (PEC) to the address dill@postacert.uniud.it no later than the said deadline.

The application and all attachments, signed with a digital signature or with an original handwritten signature affixed directly to each document and subsequently scanned and accompanied by a copy of the identity document, must be in PDF/A or Adobe PDF format.

The candidate who sends the application form by email or PEC will not need to dispatch a hard copy of the form.

The Administration decline any responsibility in the event that the files submitted through email or PEC are not legible.

In the text of the application, under the provisions of D.P.R. No. 445 28.12.2000 “Testo Unico delle disposizioni legislative e regolamentari in materia di documentazione amministrativa”, the candidate will have to state clearly and precisely:

1. His/her personal details, date and place of birth, nationality, billing address and the preferred address for receiving communications about the selection procedure (taking care to specify the post code and, if possible, a current telephone number and email address);

2. That he/she meets the requirements specified in art. 1 of the present announcement;

3. That none of the conditions for incompatibility specified in art. 3 of this announcement apply to his/her case.

4. That he/she commits to promptly inform the Department office of any change to his/her personal address indicated in the application for participation.

The application must include the following attachments:

1. An academic and professional CV, signed and dated, where the candidate also expounds on the skills and aptitudes that are relevant to his/her work on the research programme, as described in art. 1. It should also be taken into account that, pursuant to Legislative Decree n. 33/2013, art. 15, the Administration has the obligation to publish the provider’s curriculum vitae on the institutional website of the University; it is therefore recommended not to include addresses and telephone numbers or personal e-mail addresses on the curriculum vitae that one does not wish to make public;
2. A photostatic copy of his/her EEA ID or other valid identity document;
3. A copy of the degree, if obtained abroad, complete with a list of the single examinations undertaken and relative grades, and any other documentation useful to the appraisal of the candidate’s qualification (Supplementary Diploma, etc.). The candidate will also have to enclose a signed translation of the documents in either Italian or English, under his own responsibility (if the documentation is not already in Italian or English).
4. Any publications, certificates of merit and any other qualifications deemed useful to demonstrate the competence of the candidate in relation to the said programme. Academic and professional qualifications are self-certified (Attachment B). The other documents, including publications, may be either produced as originals, or photocopied and must include in this case a written affidavit, under the provisions of D.P.R No. 445 28.12.2000 (Attachment C);
5. Evidence that the candidate has conducted research activities for a public and/or private institution with a clear indication of the dates and duration of the employment.
6. A list of all the qualifications (including published materials) brought to notice (Attachment C), signed and dated.
7. Disclosure pursuant to art. 13 GDPR (Attachment D), pursuant to art. 8 of this announcement.

Certificates issued by the Public Administration and by providers of public services cannot be taken into consideration. Certificates are substituted with self-certifications or written affidavit (Attachment B and C), under the provisions of D.P.R. No. 445 28.12.2000.

The Administration reserves its right to conduct random checks into the genuineness of the self-certifications. If the declaration were found to be unfaithful, the declarer will be divested from the position obtained on the basis of the unfaithful declaration, in addition to the normal legal consequences of the act.

Applications lacking all or any of the required documentation will not be considered.

The Administration will not assume responsibility for the loss of any documentation caused by inaccuracies in the contact details provided, or late amendment of said details, nor for errors on the part of the postal services and not imputable to the Administration.

Art. 5 - Mode of selection

The selection will be aimed at measuring the applicant’s skills and experience with special reference to the programme’s aims and the mode as defined in art. 1.

The selection will consist of:
- in the appraisal of the professional scientific curriculum, of the publications and of the qualifications brought to the committee’s attention;
- in an interview with the deepening of scientific standing arguments for funding research.

The results of the appraisal of the qualifications will be disclosed to the interested parties during the interview. The interview will take place according to the schedule indicated in art. 1. This announcement has the value of notification for the purposes of invitation to the interview and therefore no direct communication to the candidates will follow.

The exclusion of a candidate owing to a lack of requirements or late application will be notified to the person to the address indicated on the application form.

The candidates must present themselves at the interview with a valid identity document.
Art. 6 - Committee

The Judging Committee is so composed:

Members:
1) Mauro Pascolini
2) Andrea Guaran
3) Francesco Visentin

Alternate member:
1) Dario Bertocchi
2) Davide Zoletto

In the course of the first session the Committee elects a President and a Registrar among its members, and defines the evaluation criteria of the titles.

The Committee can award up to 100 overall points to the qualifications and interview.

At the end of the last session, the Committee will produce general rankings of the candidates according to the points awarded and produce a record of the proceedings.

Only the candidates who score a minimum of 70/100 (seventy hundredths) overall (qualifications and interview) points will be considered for the position.

Art. 7 - Award of the scholarship

The scholarship is conferred, according to the ranking order, with Provision of the Director of the Department, upon acceptance of the selected candidate, and will take effect from the date stated on the Provision.

The Provision approving the acts of the competition will be published exclusively via the website: https://www.uniud.it/it/albo-ufficiale

The results will not be notified by post to the candidates.

Any successful candidate who does not declare his or her acceptance of the research grant within the deadline set by the Department shall lose the right to it.

The research activity cannot commence before the recipient formally accepts the scholarship and before the effective date established with Provision of the Director.

The Head of research may request intermediate reports from the scholarship holder on the activity carried out, according to the needs of the research project.

At the end of the research period, the scholarship holder must deliver to the Department’s office a detailed final report on the research activity carried out and the results achieved, accompanied by the Head of research evaluation.

The scholarship holder may renounce to the scholarship in the same way as in art. 4, with at least 20 days’ notice.

The payment of the last monthly payment will be proportionate to the period of activity carried out.
Art. 8 - Data processing

The selection procedure referred to in this competition announcement, as well as the subsequent and possible one concerning the improvement of the legal relationship between the University of Udine and the winner, constitutes "treatment" pursuant to art. 4.2 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, General Data Protection Regulation.

According to the art. 13 of that legislation and to the art. 13 of D. Lgs. 196/2003, the University of Udine is obliged to provide to the candidates participating in the selection, as "interested parties", information concerning the processing of personal data.

Such information is contained in Attachment D (Disclosure pursuant to art. 13 GDPR), which must be completed, signed and delivered by the candidate together with the application form for the participation in this competition announcement.

The report concerning the processing of personal data and its updates are available on the website of the University of Udine in the "Privacy" section, accessible from the home page www.uniud.it.

Art. 9 – “Amministrazione trasparente”

Following the acceptance of the scholarship, the winner, will be asked for a declaration regarding the performance of any other duties or ownership of offices in private law entities regulated or financed by the Public Administration.

The statement given by the scholarship holder and his curriculum vitae will be published on University website, in the section "Amministrazione trasparente", available at the link: https://www.uniud.it/it/ateneo-uniud/amministrazione-trasparente/consulenti-e-collaboratori-prova

The publication will take place within 3 months from the acceptance of the grant and will cease after 3 years from its conclusion. Candidates are therefore invited to draw up their curriculum bearing in mind that - in the event of the granting of the scholarship - it will be fully published.

Pursuant article 53, paragraph 14, of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001, the Administration is required to verify the absence of situations, even potential ones, of conflict of interest with the University of Udine. This verification will be carried out, upon transfer, through the acquisition of a specific statement of the fellow.

Pursuant article 5, paragraph 9, of D.L. 06.07.2012 no. 95, converted into Law 07.08.2012 no. 135, as amended by article 6, paragraph 1, of D.L. 24.06.2014, converted into Law 11.08.2014 no. 114, is also prohibited Public Administrations to assign duties of study, consulting and collaborations already subject to private or public workers placed in retirement.

Art. 10 – Final dispositions

As for subjects not explicitly cited above, the present announcement is covered by the provisions of the current legislation and of the "Regolamento interno per le Borse di ricerca post-lauream" of the University of Udine issued with Rectoral Decree No. 1701 of 19.12.2022.

Terms relating to persons, which appear only in the masculine in this competition announcement, refer indiscriminately to the female and male gender.
The Responsible of the competition hereby announced is dott. Elena De Paoli, Department of Languages and Literatures, Communication, Education and Society - University of Udine, via Petracco 8, 33100 Udine, email address elena.depaoli@uniud.it.
